Chapman Museum to hold discussion on 'Repose of the Fallen'

GLENS FALLS – The Chapman Museum will hold a talk titled “Repose of the Fallen at Lake George Battlefield Park,” with speakers John DiNuzzo, president of the Lake George Battlefield Park Alliance, and Dan Barusch, trustee of the Lake George Battlefield Park Alliance, at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 19.

Barusch and DiNuzzo will share plans for the reinterment of 44 early American patriots who died at the Continental Army hospital at Lake George in 1776. As previously reported, “Repose of the Fallen” will be a gathering plaza at Lake George State Battlefield Park that will feature the reinterment of the historic remains of Revolutionary-era soldiers that were discovered back in 2019 on Courtland Street. The project officially broke ground this past September.

This event is free for members, $10 for non-members. Payment is required at the time of registration. Space is limited.
